Summary:

Mid Term Test:

Mid Term Test is Pre assessment test which is conducted by the institute itself. Syllabus included in this is the portion covered by the faculty till the date of the exam. It is conducted for both external and internal subjects. The class teacher has the responsibility to prepare the time table as per the convenient of the subject teachers.

The following is the procedure for Mid Term Test conduction:
As per the Activity Calendar it is the responsibility of the Academic Head to conduct MID Term.

Syllabus (1st two units) & Marks allocation as per the subjects/Courses:

Syllabus:

- i. The syllabus for the Mid Term is the portion covered in the classes till that date by the subject teachers.
- ii. The Academic Head has to enquire about portion covered by them in the classes.

Marks Allocation:

- i. Marks allocated for both external and internal subjects are 40 marks
- ii. Each Course wherein the students are asked to attempt 3 questions out of which 2 are for 20 marks and one major question consists of 20 marks of MCQs

1. Asking the respective subject/Course teachers to prepare question papers.

(Note: The subject teacher should maintained the quality of paper i.e the questions should be application based and MCQs)

2. Time table Preparation as per faculty availability.

After reviewing with the subject teachers, the academic head has to prepare timetable as per the convenience of the subject teachers.

3. Conducting MID TERM TEST as per schedule

- i. MID TERM TEST should be conducted during regular hours of college at the respective classes where the students have their regular lectures.
- ii. Along with the MID TERM TEST regular time table should also be followed.

4. Evaluation of papers and Result Declaration

- i. The papers should be evaluated by the subject/Course teachers
- ii. Result should be displayed to the students on the notice board.

Online MCQs:

As per the concurrent evaluation MID Term Test Online MCQ's is conducted by the Savitribai Phule Pune University Examination itself. It is common for all the colleges in Pune which are affiliated to Pune University Examination. Online MCQ is conducted only for external subjects only. The syllabus for the exam is first two units of each of the external subject. Each paper compromises of 16 to 20 questions.
